

EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Overnight Community Care Worker

LONDON, ON

Posting Date: September 3, 2019

AtlohSA Family Healing Services is seeking a motivated and dynamic individual to fill the role of Overnight Community Care Worker. The primary role of the Overnight Community Care Worker will be to provide a safe, supportive space for community members in need of an overnight resting space. You will be responsible for communicating with other agencies, maintaining confidentiality of all participants and documents of the Resting Space program and will work in a team environment in an overnight setting.

Role and Responsibility

Using a Holistic Indigenous-led approach to principles of Harm Reduction and Housing First principals, the successful applicant will offer compassionate and assertive care and support to community members who may be experiencing homelessness, social stigma, mental health and substance use. The Overnight Community Care Worker will be responsible for assessment and intake of community members in need of a temporary resting space by offering rest, food and engagement. The Overnight Community Care Worker will address and access the immediate comfort and need of individuals in need of support. This may include providing lay counselling and proactively intervening when crisis or conflict arises; which may include aggressive or disruptive in the moment behavior due to substance use and or mental health. The Overnight Community Care Worker will liaison with other social service agencies, record accurate and detailed shift notes and must be able to provide clear, concise objective communication regarding community members being supported at the Resting Space. The Overnight Community Care Worker will work to ensure that AtlohSA Family Healing Services is a safe space for all community members accessing services and programming by referring community members to more appropriate locations if the need shall arise.
